Guidelines for Using the Amphitheatre

- The use of the library by library members must be respected.
- No alcoholic beverages permitted.
- A certificate of insured liability is required for all rentals. (Limit of Liability amount should be $1,000,000.) Generally, a CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE is available from your insurance agent. It should state that coverage applies to the Camden Public Library on the day of your wedding or event. The policy owner should be the same person(s) as the signer of the application. Insurance for wedding ceremonies and receptions also is available online at WWW.WEDSAFE.COM.
- Public parking is available throughout town; a map is available. Exclusive use of the Meadow Parking Lot is not included.
- Wedding receptions are not permitted because facilities cannot support lights, fire of any kind, or cooking. In addition, there is no access to water or plumbing.
- No confetti or rice is allowed.
- Portable toilet facilities must be provided by the renter for any event over 4 hours and removed immediately thereafter.
- Amplified music is not permitted after 9:00 pm.
- Stakes of any kind are not permitted, including stakes for tents, signs, or fencing.
- Access to the library is available through the main doors on Atlantic Avenue only. Please note that the Reading Room on the third floor is reserved for quiet reading and research. Use of the third-floor exit from the library (down the curved stone stairway) is restricted to a formal entrance by the bride and one escort only. If staff are requested to open the library during non-business hours, a charge of $50/hour will be added to the balance due. This agreement does not include rental or occupancy of any space inside the library building.
- Although no security deposit is required, applicants will be responsible for any damage and will be billed for damage or excessive cleanup costs.
- “Resident” rates apply only if one of the wedding couple or their parents are Camden residents.
- The Amphitheatre is located at the head of the harbor, on Atlantic Avenue just off Main Street.

These rules may be reviewed on a case-by-case basis by a vote of the Camden Public Library Board of Trustees.
