

April 2022 Youth Programs

Fostering a love of books and the joy of reading!

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK IS APRIL 4TH-8TH - LOOK FOR SPECIAL ACTIVITIES ALL WEEK!

Maine Student Book Award

4th-8th graders who love reading & want to book chat with peers are welcome to join our monthly mtg. This month we'll be back in person!!!

Monday, April 4th, 5pm.

Join any time!

Tune in for special crafts, YA how- to videos, Tinker Tuesday -STEAM activities, booktalks, new book unboxings & more, daily.

Miss_Amy_H

Like the Camden Public Library Facebook pg.

Miss Amy Hand @CPL

I'm excited to announce our 1st in-person-indoor program for middle schoolers only! Join Miss Amy for a hand-sewn mini-book workshop! All materials provided. Limited number of kits available! Sign up to reserve a spot now! 4:30-5:30pm Monday 11th

YA Book Lovers Club meets on Zoom. 4:00pm, April 26th If you love YA books, join us for a lively discussion! Email to get the link.

I am excited to begin offering one indoor preschool storytime again! Fridays at 10am beginning April 22nd in the Picker Room. For those ready... Join Miss Amy for Stories and a craft! All are welcome!

Enter an accordion book in the mini-art show no later than the 1st week of April, on display all month

Join Miss Amy for April Vacation Camp!

Paper Mache' Fish Sculptures!

Tuesday- Design your cardboard fish frame.

Wednesday- apply paper mache' strips

Thursday- paint and decorate your fish creation

Ages 5-12 This program will be a hybrid of indoor and outdoor activities!

Call or email to sign up to reserve a spot!

April 19th, 20th, & 21st at 11 am